

G. L. City, Thursday April 5. 1860 President Young attended a meeting held at the historians office for the further investigations of the doctrines of Orson Pratt; &

Bro Orson Pratt submitted a sermon to the President which he had drawn up with the co-operation of others of the Twelve which the President accepted with the remark that he should attach a few remarks to it. &

Bro. Orson Pratt asked if the subject was to be dropped; or was it to be resuscitated again President Young observed he never wanted the subject, to be smothered again, and wished those in the room, not to mention it. and asked O. Pratt if he ever wanted to open new ground to preach about, to submit such subjects to him first, remarking also that Bro Orson was a sweet preacher, and he took great pleasure in hearing him, and had always admired his willingness to perform what labors had been required of him

G. L. City — Friday April 6. 1860.

President Young attended Conference morning and afternoon.

In the evening, President directed a list of missionaries to be made out.

G. L. City, Saturday April 7. 1860.

Pres. Young attended Conference, and called over the names of the missionaries